

ENECON Conducts 3 Day Training Seminar In Guangzhou, China

Guangzhou, China's third largest city and the capital of Guangdong province in South China, was the site of a 3-day training seminar conducted by Jon Ma, ENECON's Regional Sales Director for Greater China.

The seminar was conducted at Disheng Company headquarters, ENECON's regional Master Distributor for southeast China. 10 attendees from 5 separate Disheng sub-distributors attended the training as well as one person from ENECON's Taiwan Distributorship.

Jon's itinerary focused on new corporate videos recently translated into Chinese, ENECON's new Chinese language website, Power Point presentations and real world applications. There was a 'hands-on' workshop allowing attendees to obtain practical mixing experience followed by an actual pump repair application completed in Disheng's warehouse the next day.
