

ENECON Hosts Successful Training Seminar in Johannesburg, South Africa

Mady Baruah, Regional Sales Director for ENECON Corporation, recently hosted a training seminar in Johannesburg for ENECON's newly appointed Distributor for South Africa. South Africa is a country abundant with potential applications in the mining, pulp/paper and commercial shipping and marine industries just to name a few.

Derik LaGrange, ENECON South Africa's Managing Director, invited two groups of sub-distributors from the neighboring cities of Rustenburg and Durban to participate in the 3-day training event.

The seminar focused on product review and sales/marketing training in the South African market.
